Lest We Forget

Welcome to our 2024 Autumn edition of Razzle, which is celebrating it's 55th year. The very first edition of Razzle was produced in February 1969. See pages 18 & 19 for a pictorial of previous issues.

2024 has started at the club in full speed, already we have given away a brand new car in our Summer Cruisin' promotion, but not to worry if you missed out on that, we have another MG ZS Excite up for grabs with our OMG! For information on services please see pages 5, 6 and 7.

COURAGE | ENDURANCE | MATESHIP | SACRIFICE are the words inscribed in each of the four black granite pillars at the Isurava Memorial on the Kokoda Trail and encompasses the Kokoda Spirit.

Applications are now open for the Kokoda Youth Leadership Challenge which will be held from Monday 30th September to Friday 11th October 2024.

Each year, Penrith RSL Club and the City of Penrith RSL sub-Branch, sponsors community members to take part in this program. The program challenges future leaders physically, emotionally, mentally, serves to develop and refine leadership skills, as well as educating them on the hardships endured by the Australian soldiers and the Papua New Guinea guides that helped them cross the treacherous terrain.

If you are aged between 17-25 years of age (fit and mature persons outside of this age group may still be considered) take a look at our website for more information <http://www.penrithrsl.com.au/kokoda-youth-leadership-challenge/> Applications close on Wednesday 10th April.

Remember to keep up to date with all the latest information from your Club, keep us posted on changes to your details, simply up date at reception the next time you visit or call 4728 5200 or email info@penrithrsl.com.au and follow us on Facebook or Instagram.

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
